

EV36
ZERO

Entering a new era of electrification, Nissan extends its commitment to innovation and transformative change by daring to do what others don't.

NISSAN SUNDERLAND PLANT

Since Nissan Sunderland Plant opened in 1986, the plant has developed into an international automotive centre, located in Sunderland, UK.

BACKGROUND

- UK engineering, design and manufacturing capability supporting 46,000 UK jobs
- World-leading logistics operation managing 5 million parts a day
- Exports: 70% vehicles exported to EU, 20% UK, 10% exported outside EU
- 1 of only 3 Global Training Centres within Nissan
- Mother plant for AMIEO region

NISSAN SUNDERLAND PLANT IN NUMBERS

- 6,000 employees at Nissan Sunderland Plant, 7,000 across the UK
- Supports over 46,000 jobs in the UK supply chain
- 2 production lines
- Models built:
 - o Line 1: Qashqai and LEAF
 - o Line 2: Qashqai and JUKE
- Produced 245,846 cars in 2020
- Since 1986, Nissan Sunderland Plant has produced 10.4m cars
- More than £5 billion all time investment by Nissan
- £400m investment for the all-new Qashqai being produced at Nissan Sunderland Plant
- Fastest single site UK factory to produce 10 million units (2018)
- 1 in 10 cars built at Nissan Sunderland Plant last year was electric (72,745)
- 5,000 graduates, placements and apprenticeships since 1986 and more than 65,000 North East youngsters have engaged with a Nissan Skills Foundation event at the plant